

7 November 2018

Didi Sukyadi Juwaeni
Vice Rector for Research, Partnerships, and Business
Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia
Jl. Dr. Setiabudhi 229, Bandung 40154, Indonesia

Dear Invitee,

Letter of Invitation

On behalf of the University of New South Wales (UNSW), I would like to invite you to visit the University as part of the Times Higher Education Research Excellence: Asia Pacific Summit – Research for the Public Good, between 20 – 21 February 2019.

It is our understanding this letter will constitute your official invitation for the purposes of visa and internal travel approval and have been advised that your details are as follows:

Surname:	Juwaeni
First Name:	Didi Sukyadi
Gender:	Male
Date of Birth:	09 June 1967
Place of Birth:	Majalengka
Passport Number:	B 0183948
Passport Issued on:	31 December 2014
Passport Valid until:	31 December 2019

The Times Higher Education World Research Excellence: Asia Pacific Summit, titled 'Research for the Public Good', brings together global leaders from business and academia, to address the most pressing challenges and opportunities faced by the world. The event will cover two full days of interview, debate and discussion, networking events including a gala dinner, drinks reception, and social engagements.

Please note the UNSW will not cover any expenses of the visit (e.g. flights, accommodation, insurance, and other related travel expenses).

For any enquiries regarding the Times Higher Education World Research Excellence: Asia Pacific Summit, to please contact Chelsea Martin at chelsea.martin@timeshighereducation.com

Yours sincerely,

Laurie Pearcey (Mr)
Pro-Vice-Chancellor (International)
UNSW Sydney